New Frontiers Journey Tribute Band

Huge shout-out to Moon City Music & Event Center for bringing New Frontiers to downtown Wapakoneta. They will be opening mid-summer of 2017. Moon City Music & Event center will provide a unique retail space that will cross merchandise - music supplies, instruments, gift shop, Barb Wire & Grace Boutique & a future recording studio. Check out their Facebook for more information.

New Frontiers: The Definitive Journey Tribute was formed in 2015 by guitarist Jimi Goare, with the idea that the MUSIC of this legendary band be paid its proper due. Instead of emulating other tributes that “look” like Journey, New Frontiers chooses to focus on recreating that classic Journey sound that everyone knows and loves. You don't want to miss this experience, so plan to see this amazing band with a few thousand of your friends!.

Chase Cummings

Wapakoneta Summer Moon Festival is proud to present a local favorite that has captured the hearts of Auglaize County and beyond! Before Chase Cummings started recording music he thought all he would do is farm (which he loves), but he soon discovered his love and passion for music. He started writing his own songs when he was in the third grade, "just dreaming of being an artist & creating my own music that all people would enjoy" He started making demos in the fall of 2015. Then in the winter of 2015 through the beginning of 2016 he recorded and released my debut single, "Ain't Going Nowhere."
